

Celebrating the art of dance, Jackson style

The students of Class 3 of Prangan, the primary block of the school, presented a group dance presentation. Almost 180 students participated and showcased their dancing talent. They performed dance forms like Western, Indian and freestyle. A tribute was paid to the King of Pop, Michael Jackson, with students grooving to Dangerous — a Jackson hit.

Dressed in beautiful costumes, the students also performed a Radha Krishna Raslila as well. This was followed by Bhangra and Gidda performances and a sporty dance illustrating the benefits of exercise and good health. The head of Prangan block, Manpreet Bhan, appreciated the efforts put in by dance teachers and students and said, “it was amazing to see the rhythm and coordination of these budding dancers and their exceptional moves and confidence”. The dance teachers of the school, Yogi Rajput, Kirti Rao and Ravi Verma, surprised audience with a dance performance as well, which was the cynosure of the event and was appreciated by all.

The Sanskaar
Valley
School