Bhopal: St Joseph's Co-Ed School won two titles in Subroto Cup Inter-District Football Tournament, which concluded here at Army Public School on Wednesday. The school lifted trophy in under-17 age group in girls' section and also won the crown in same age group in boys' category.

St Joseph's School beat The Sanskaar Valley School 3-0 in girls' final. The institution repeated its success in boys' under-17 final as they out-scored hosts Army Public School 2-0 in the summit clash. Under-14 title in boys' category went to Army Public School. They defeated Billabong 2-1 to clinch the title.

Chief guest Brigadier Manoj Khanduri gave away the prizes to the winners. Speaking on the occasion, he urged students to strike a perfect balance between sports and academics. Seema Dwivedi, principal of Army Public School, congratulated the winners and participants of the tournament.
