Bhopal: Triumphing all the way through, the 200-student delegation from The Sanskaar Valley School reigned at Sophrosyne 2017, a mega festival organised by Billabong High International School, Bhopal. The four-day extravaganza that began from November 20, saw over 1700 students participating from 37 schools from 9 states & 13 cities across the country.

TSVS students were lauded by Dr Amlan K Saha, principal, TSVS and the teaching fraternity at the school for this exemplary feat. Participating in various events in 4 different categories - Wordsmith (English), Innovazione (IT), Go for Gold (Sports) and Art Arbour (Arts and Crafts), the students from The Sanskaar Valley School won 26 trophies. TSVS emerged as the first runner-up in the entire competition, second only to the host, bringing home the Overall Championship Trophy.

TALENTED TECHIES

Exhibiting technical prowess, TSVS students won 18 top positions in Innovazione, an IT based contest that tested students' technical skills. Lavanya Shrivastava won the first prize in Contest Quest, a debate competition with a twist. The boys from the school were not far behind as Devak Namdhari lifted the runners-up trophy in the senior category debate.
